

Instructions for following the webcast during the Annual General Meeting of Nokian Tyres plc

Shareholders must register for the Annual General Meeting of Nokian Tyres plc between 2:00 p.m. on April 5, 2024 and 4:00 p.m. on April 24, 2024 (EEST).

Shareholders registered for the General Meeting may also follow the meeting via a webcast. Following the webcast is not considered as official participation in the General Meeting and it is not possible for shareholders to ask questions, make counterproposals, address the meeting otherwise, or vote via the webcast. Shareholders who intend to follow the meeting via webcast and wish to exercise their voting rights are referred to vote in advance or by way of proxy representation. A link to the webcast will be sent by Innovatics Oy no later than the evening before the meeting on April 29, 2024, either by e-mail or SMS, depending on the contact details provided by the shareholder when registering for the Annual General Meeting.

The webcast of the AGM will be carried out by the Inderes Plc's virtual AGM Service via videosync-platform, which will contain the necessary video and audio links for remote following of the General Meeting. Following the webcast on the Videosync platform does not require the use or download of any specific software. In addition to a stable internet connection, following the webcast requires a computer, smartphone or tablet with speakers or, alternatively, a headphone jack for audio playback. It is recommended to use one of the following browsers for monitoring: Chrome, Firefox, Edge, Safari or Opera.

For more information on the AGM service, additional instructions for those representing more than one shareholder, contact details for the service provider and instructions on how to resolve common problems, please visit <https://vagm.fi/support>. You can test the compatibility of your computer, smartphone or tablet with the Videosync platform before the AGM via the link <https://demo.videosync.fi/agm-compatibility?language=en>. It is recommended to read these instructions before the General Meeting. It is also advisable to log in to the webcasting platform well in advance of the General Meeting.

In case of problems, shareholders are requested to contact Innovatics Ltd in accordance with the following instructions.

For assistance with registration, please contact Innovatics Ltd on + 358 10 2818 909 on weekdays between 9:00 a.m. and 12:00 p.m. and 1:00 p.m. and 4:00 p.m. (EEST) during the registration period for the General Meeting.

In the event of any problems with logging in to the webcast just before or during the General Meeting, assistance can be obtained by calling +358 10 2818 909 or by sending an e-mail to agm@innovatics.fi.

In the event of problems with the follow-up to the meeting during the meeting, assistance can be obtained by telephone on +358 20 729 1449 or by sending an e-mail to support@videosync.fi.